3 School Street, Rockport, MA

Heidi Caswell Zander's art is a feast of color and rhythm inspired by the observed. Using an expansive palette, nuanced mixes rise to the canvas capturing the feeling of place, of light, of warmth. Her brush dances delivering unique combinations, which invite the viewer to enter a captured experience of a natural scene.

Zander's work bares the imprint of growing up immersed in the artist culture of Cape Ann. Study at Rhode Island School of Design expanded her techniques and art historical understanding, as did her year as a European Honor Society member in Rome, Italy, and a decade of teaching art for the German government in Berlin, Germany. Having lived, created and taught in the footsteps of Impressionists, Expressionists, Fauves, and many more, is reflected in her style.

Tidal Edge Gallery, which Zander opened in 2005 at 3 School Street in Rockport, showcases her creations. She is an artist member of the North Shore Art Association, the National Association of Women Artists, and the Rockport Art Association & Museum (& board member). Her work is in collections throughout the US and Europe.
